

Lucy Tesman is an undergraduate Senior at Lehigh University in Bethlehem, Pennsylvania. She is a graphic design major and studio art minor. She has worked with many mediums in the past, but this is her first experience with photography. She is from Carlisle, Pennsylvania. She has practiced art since a young age and it has continuously played a large role in her life.

Murals of Bethlehem

Lucy Tesman

Murals of Bethlehem is a series of work, capturing the artwork that make up the “Urban Arts Trail” in Bethlehem, Pennsylvania. This project shows the various art styles and mediums that decorate the town, from a mosaic bus stop to massive, full building, hand painted murals. I have loved seeing many of these murals for the past four years but with this project, I was able to experience multiple of these murals for the first time.
